

ECHUCA MUSEUM WAS THE POLICE STATION AND LOCK UP

1 DICKSON STREET ECHUCA

(NATIONAL TRUST REGISTERED)

This building was originally the Police Station and Barracks and was built in 1867 and closed in 1969. The building is a heritage registered premises. The centre section was built in 1867 replacing a wooden building used as a Court House from 1859, the southern wing and brick cells were added in 1869 with the northern wing added in 1876.